Thought Spot: As he faced a life of slavery [Gen. 39:1-4], how did Joseph keep his joy when we find ourselves so easily tempted to lose ours to life's small inconveniences: a flat tire, an unexpected bill, scorched soup? The key, I think, is that "the Lord was with Joseph." That is the deciding factor. Joseph was not in his circumstance alone. When we abandon joy in the face of difficult times, we abandon God and we walk alone. – Celeste Perrino Walker, Joy — The secret of being content.
