Thought Spot: Why does [Jesus] want me to walk with Him? Third, Jesus wants to lead me. It's not up to me to figure out the pace, to force the tempo, to rush the final mile. I'm far more peaceful and in step with real life when I allow Jesus to lead the walk. His pacing is impeccable. His walking rhythm brings beauty and gracefulness to my life, allowing me to see the terrain I'm walking through, rather than solely concentrating on the steps. I am caught off guard by the grace that comes through following. No longer stumbling and injuring myself, I find that, like the 10 lepers, I am healed "on the way." – A. Allan Martin, Adventist Review.
