Thought Spot: The person who truly has confidence in who they are, and their worth to God, can perform any task with dignity and honor. And the person who truly has confidence in who they are, and their worth to God, can acknowledge their giftedness with dignity and honor – and humility. Actually, God's children must acknowledge their giftedness. For to deny their giftedness is to deny their spiritual heritage. – Bonita Joyner Shields, Adventist Review.
