Thought Spot: I have a wish list for Seventh-day Adventists. 5. People who live, look, and feel great. That's the Lord's wish for us (3 John 2), and we can, by His grace, approach that ideal. No, I realize that we don't all start from a level playing field: hereditary and other factors give some of us an advantage. But to a large extent we can be masters of our destiny. We can act on what we know. We can change! Adventists' biggest area of need, I believe, is to exercise. Do what the Lord created you to do: Walk! You'll look better and feel better. You'll be better. – William G. Johnsson, Adventist Review.
