Thought Spot: Worship can be described in a variety of ways. But two components should always exist in worship. The first is revelation. True worship will always be about God revealing Himself to us. He does this primarily through the reading and speaking of His word the Bible. The second component is response. After receiving a revelation of God, we must respond to it. We must think a differently, act differently or somehow respond to God's revelation. The Scripture says, "God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth" (John 4:24 NKJV). Pastor Phil
