Worship Celebration

Building a community that accepts and supports

Welcome to the Merrimack Valley Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Welcome to our Mental Health Live Sabbath presented by AY and Family Ministry! Please join us for potluck after the service and for our afternoon session concerning mental health, acceptance and building a community. May you be blessed today.

Do you desire Bible Studies, baptism, a pastoral visit or prayer? Please see the Pastor or one of the Elders.

Thought Spot: Did you know that when a person is in crisis, struggling with mental health, the first place they visit is church? How would you address this in church? We must educate ourselves. We must start having open discussions about mental health, so that we may help ourselves and be of help to others. God wants us to lead full, happy lives! End the stigma!

Announcements

November 9th: On November 9th Merrimack Valley will be starting an exciting initiative to create new Missional Communities that will build the church through Community of faith on Gods mission together. It will be an exciting Sabbath with teachings and activities throughout the fellowship meal. Please plan to be here that Sabbath.

Help for Carla! I am still taking donations for Carla Bonfim, she's been out of work without pay since June due to medical issues. Market Basket gift cards in any amount and cash donations which can be put in a tithe envelope and marked for Carla would be appreciated. Just place in offering plate or give to me personally. Contact person: Joanie Reiss 978-621-6886 (call or text)
